

An Evening with Terry Waite CBE

St Katharine's Church,
Southbourne
Tuesday 9th October 2018
at 7pm

Join us for an evening where Terry Waite will recount how as a Hostage negotiator he was taken hostage himself in Beirut from 1987-1991, and speak about his most recent books 'Solitude' and 'Out of the Silence'. Now a popular speaker and author, his other books include 'Taken on Trust', 'Travels with a Primate', and a comic novel 'The Voyage of the Golden Handshake'. Terry is the Co-founder of Hostage UK and Y Care International, and he is also president of Emmaus UK, a charity and community working together to end homelessness. Money raised from the event will go to support the Coptic Christian communities in Egypt.

Light refreshments will be provided during the interval. To support the work of the charities Terry is involved with Three Books will be available for sale:

Solitude (hardback) at £16.99
Out of the Silence (paperback) at £10
Taken on Trust (paperback) at £10

Please Note: CASH sales only (or cheques).
Terry will be happy to personally sign any books bought at the event.

A short question and answer session will conclude the evening

Tickets are £10 and available by contacting St Katharine's Parish office:
Tel: 01202 418476 or Email: stkathnic@btconnect.com